Ransomed is a trio dedicated to pointing unbelievers to the cross and encouraging believers in the church to a deeper walk with the Lord Jesus Christ. Ransomed's purpose is to go where we are called, minister to those we are called to minister to, believing God will meet all our needs. This is a group known for their tight harmonies and unmistakable message of salvation through Jesus Christ.

Ransomed was founded in February 1997 as a church singing group. Since then, the members of Ransomed have seen their ministry grow to where they are singing in various venues across 3 states. When you bring Ransomed to your church or event you will hear a variety of songs intended to point people to Jesus and encourage them in their walk.

The ministry philosophy of Ransomed is to remain faithful to Biblical truths and maintain a high level of class in its presentation. Along the way, congregations have also enjoyed the family interaction between the brothers. As Chris puts it, "We are not a group of entertainers but we do our best to keep the interest of the congregation." Their love for the Lord and each other becomes increasingly evident throughout the service.

Ransomed is a great gospel trio that praises Jesus Christ and lifts Him higher and has a great time doing it with a great sense of humor and laughter.

Hey, guys, great job tonight in Henderson. The entire family really enjoyed it. From the very first song, your smooth blend and close harmony really grabbed our attention. AND YOU HONORED GOD!!! Most important, Thank you for a wonderful evening. Tommie, my wife, and I have often said that certain gospel groups provide excellent entertainment, but when you fellows sang, we felt we had been at a worship service. Thanks again from the heart!!

Ransomed enhanced the worship and celebration of God's greatness, Christ's glory, and the Spirit's Grace. The focus was worship and praise, not simply entertainment of the people. The group "paved the road" for the preaching of the Word. Some members thought Ransomed was the best group to appear in this church.
